General Information

City of Clarkston's Lodging Tax Fund is the primary source of City funding for activities, operations, and expenditures designed to increase tourism.

The City of Clarkston has created a Lodging Tax Advisory Committee to conduct an annual process to solicit and recommend Lodging Tax funded services to be funded for the City Council's consideration.

HIGH PRIORITY will be given to tourism activities that:

- Have a demonstrated potential or high potential from the Committee's perspective to result in overnight stays by tourists in lodging establishments within the City of Clarkston and the Asotin County area.
- Promote City of Clarkston and/or events, activities, and places in the County to potential tourists from outside a 50 mile radius.
- Have demonstrated or high potential from the Committee's perspective to result in documented economic benefit to City of Clarkston.

- Have a demonstrated history of success in Clarkston, or are proposed by a group with a demonstrated history or high potential of success with similar activities.
 - Minimize duplication of services where appropriate and encourage cooperative marketing and/or includes an element of cooperation or partnership.

City of Clarkston's Lodging Tax Advisory Committee Considerations

In developing its recommendations, the Committee considers:

- The estimated amount of Lodging Tax Fund projected for the coming year as provided by collections from the previous year.
 - Thoroughness and completeness of the proposal.
 - Percent of the proposal request to the event/facility promotions budget and overall revenues.
 - Projected economic impact in particular projected overnight stays in lodging establishments.
 - The applicant's financial stability.
 - The applicant's history of tourism promotion success.

State Law Excerpts

RCW 67.28.1816 – Use of Lodging Tax Fund.

Lodging tax revenue under this chapter may be used, directly by any municipality or indirectly through a convention and visitor's bureau or destination marketing organization for:

1. Tourism marketing;
2. The marketing and operations of special events and festivals designed to attract tourists;
3. Supporting the operations and capital expenditures of tourism-related facilities owned or operated by a municipality or a public facilities district created under chapters 35.57 and 36.100 RCW; or
4. Supporting the operations of tourism-related facilities owned or operated by nonprofit organizations described under 26 U.S.C. Sec. 501(c)(3) and 26 U.S.C. Sec 501(c)(6) or the internal revenue code of 1986, as amended.
5. Applicants applying for use of lodging tax funds must provide the municipality to which they are applying estimates of how any moneys received will result in increases in the number of people traveling for business or pleasure on a trip:
 - a. Away from their place of residence or business and staying overnight in paid accommodations;
 - b. To a place fifty miles or more one way from their place of residence or business for the day or staying overnight; or
 - c. From another country or state outside of their place of residence or their business.
6. Applicants applying for use of lodging taxes must submit their applications and estimates described under (5) of this subsection to the local lodging tax advisory committee.
 - a. The local lodging tax advisory committee must select the candidates from amongst the applicants applying for use of revenues and provide a list of such candidates and recommended amounts of funding to the municipality for final determination. The municipality may choose only recipients from the list of candidates and recommended amounts provided by the local lodging tax advisory committee.
